

We provide accounting and financial services, as well as tax consultations to small (microenterprises) and medium-sized enterprises and organizations.

We offer our clients our professional knowledge, experience and skills for the following services:

- Accounting on regular and complete basis;
- Takeover and continuation of existing accounting;
- Adjustment and restoration of accounting of previous periods;
- Monthly tax calculation and accounting;
- Preparation and sending of reports (EDS) to the SRS, Statistical Bureau, etc.;
- Preparation of annual report;
- Consultations and practical assistance in issues of accounting and tax application;
- Development of accounting policy, which is approved by the company's director;
- Representation of the client in SRS institutions;
- Analysis of company's financial state;
- Auditing services to small and medium-sized enterprises;
- Development of business financial plans and financial forecasts.

All documents are prepared in accordance with requirements of Accounting standards and other laws and regulations of the Republic of Latvia.

In cooperation with our cooperation partners, we offer you professional legal services in commercial law, as well as services of certified auditor.

Fine attitude and quality is guaranteed.